

Lifting the cross-ownership ban to allow further media consolidation will NOT serve the public interest. The news reported by a merged megacompany will not be diverse or of good quality. News is a service to the public, one that should be kept free of commercialization and the interests of a small private sector of the population.